Levy of excise duty on cut pieces

2629. SHRI PRAGADA KOTAIAH: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal under Government's consideration to levy excise duty (normal and additional) on the cut pieces coming out of the textile mills in large quanties to improve the financial resources and reduce its competition with handloom products;

(b) if so, by when such a proposal is likely to be implemented; and

(c) if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI ANIL SHASTRI): (a) to (c) Under the Central Excise Tariff, there is no general exemption from excise duty on cut pieces. Some selective exemption is, however, available to certain varieties of cut pieces commonly known as 'chindies' and fabrics of narrow width. There is no proposal to levy excise duty on such exempted varieties of cut-pieces.
